North Rampart Community Center 2015 Summer Camp Rules

I understand that I am expected to follow the basic rules of North Rampart Community Center while participating in the Summer Camp activities. Following these rules will keep both my peers and myself safe during my camp participation.

1. Be respectful to both the adults and peers at all times.
2. No fighting or physical violence while on the campgrounds.
3. No obscene or vulgar language when talking with peers and adults.
4. Proper dress is expected at all times (shoes, shirts, pants/shorts). Clothes should not be revealing or vulgar in appearance.
5. Stay in assigned areas by following the daily schedule of classes.
6. No leaving the campgrounds without permission from the camp staff during the camp day.
7. No stealing or "borrowing" of other people's belongings.
8. No use of telephone without permission.
9. No friends or relatives can come to camp with you that are not approved beforehand by Coach Parker.
10. Any electronics, including cell phones, or other toys that are brought with you to camp are your sole responsibility (headphones, radio/CD players, handheld games, beepers, etc.). The center is not responsible for the loss of any personal items.

Failure to follow the rules of the camp may lead to my termination from the Summer Camp and my expulsion from the North Rampart Community Center.
